The Gospel of John, particularly John's Passion, makes frequent reference to "the Jews" as Jesus' opponents. "The Jews" in this text refers to the religious leaders and authority of ancient Judea and not the Jewish people as a whole. The Jewish people are God's chosen people, and their covenant has not been superseded or replaced by the Christian covenant.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

All stand as the Sacred Ministers and their assistants go to the High Altar in silence. The Sacred Ministers prostrate themselves before the altar, at which point all others kneel with bowed heads. All keep silence for an extended period of time. The Sacred Ministers alone then stand for the Collect.

Celebrant:

Almighty God, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of sinners, and to suffer death upon the Cross; who now liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Please be seated.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 52.13—53.12

The customary announcement of the reading is omitted.

See, my servant shall prosper; he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. Just as there were many who were astonished at him - so marred was his appearance, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of mortals - so he shall startle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which had not been told them they shall see, and that which they had not heard they shall contemplate.

Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed? For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by others; a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity; and as one from whom others hide their faces he was despised, and we held him of no account. Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth. Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the Lord shall prosper. Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

The customary concluding announcement and response is omitted.

PSALM 22.1-11

Tone VIII,3

- 1 MY GOD, my God, why hast thou for-sa-ken_me :
and art so far from my help, and from the words of my_com-plaint?
- 2 O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not :
and in the night-season al-so I take_no_rest.
- 3 And thou continuest ho-ly : O thou wor-ship of Is-ra-el.
- 4 Our fathers trusted in thee :
they trusted in thee, and thou didst de-liv-er_them.
- 5 They called upon thee, and were sa-ved :
they put their trust in thee, and were not con-found-ed.
- 6 But as for me, I am a worm and no man :
a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the peo-ple.
- 7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn :
they shoot out their lips, and shake_their_heads,
- 8 Saying, 'He trusted in God, that he would de-liv-er_him :
let him deliver him, if he de-light-eth in_him.'
- 9 But thou art he that took me from the womb :
thou wast my hope, when I hangéd yet up-on my mo-ther's_breasts.
- 10 I have been left unto thee ever since I was born :
thou art my God even from my mo-ther's_womb.
- 11 O go not from me, for trouble is hard at hand :
and there is none to help_me.

SECOND READING: Hebrews 4.14-16 & 5.7-9

The customary announcement of the reading is omitted.

Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. In the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared; though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; and being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him.

CANTICLE: "Song of Christ's Glory" (Philippians 2.6-11); Tone II,2

- 6 CHRIST JE-/SUS being in the form of God :
counted it not a prize to be ē-quāl to God.
- 7 But emptiéd himself, and took upon him the form of a ser-vant :
and was made in the like-nëss of men.
- 8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbléd him-self :
and became obedient unto death, even the dēath öf the Cross.
- 9 Wherefore God also hath highly ex-al-ted him :
and given him the Name which is a-böve ev-ery name.
- 10 That at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow :
of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things ün-dër the earth.
- 11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord :
to the glory of Göd thë Fa-ther.

The People may stand immediately or remain seated until the mention of the Place of the Skull; at that point, all who are able stand. The customary responses before and after the Gospel are omitted.

THE PASSION GOSPEL: John 18 & 19

The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

At that time, Jesus went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples. And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples. Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye? They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them. As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground. Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none. Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, And led him away to Annas first; for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year. Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest. But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine. Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing. Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said. And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not. One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him? Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgement: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgement hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the Passover. Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man? They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee. Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

Then Pilate entered into the judgement hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. Pilate saith unto him, What is truth?

And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all. But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the Passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe, And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands. Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him. Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid; And went again into the judgement hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? Knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee? Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin. And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar.

When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgement seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. And it was the preparation of the Passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King! But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar. Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

All who have remained seated but are able, now stand.

And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin. Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written I have written. Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith,

They parted my raiment among them,
and for my vesture they did cast lots.

These things therefore the soldiers did. Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son! Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home. After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

All kneel and keep silence for a space, standing again when the Deacon stands.

The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe. For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

SERMON

HYMN 593 – When I survey the wondrous cross

- 1 When I survey the wondrous Cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
- 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the Cross of Christ, my God;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his Blood.
- 3 See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
- 4 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were an offering far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

THE SOLEMN PRAYERS

The People remain standing during the biddings, and at the direction of the Deacon kneel in silent prayer for a time, standing as bidden for the Collect which follows.

Celebrant:

Dear People of God:

Our heavenly Father sent his Son into the world
not to condemn the world,

but that the world, through him, might be saved, that all who believe in him might be delivered from the power of sin and death and become heirs with him of everlasting life.

We pray therefore for people everywhere according to their needs.

Deacon:

Let us pray for the one holy catholic and apostolic Church of Christ throughout the world:

for its unity in faith, witness, and service, for all bishops and other ministers and the people whom they serve, for Andrew our bishop and all the people of this diocese, for Linda, Primate of Canada and Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, for all Christians in this parish and community, for Bright and James, and all those preparing to be baptized, for those who are mocked and persecuted for their faith,

that God will confirm his Church in faith, increase it in love, and preserve it in peace.

Let us kneel in silent prayer.

Subdeacon: Arise.

Celebrant:

Almighty and everlasting God,
by whose Spirit the whole body of thy faithful people is governed and sanctified:

Receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before thee for all members of thy holy Church, that in our vocation and ministry we may truly and devoutly serve thee;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

People: Amen.

Deacon:

Let us pray for all the nations and peoples of the earth,
and for those in authority among them:
for Elizabeth our Queen and all the Royal Family,
for the Governor General,
for the Prime Minister and Parliament of this country, for the Lieutenant Governor and Premier of Ontario, and the members of the Legislature, for the Mayor of Toronto and those who serve on City Council, for all who serve the common good,
that by God's help the world may seek justice and truth, and live in peace and concord.
Let us kneel in silent prayer.

Subdeacon: Arise.

Celebrant:

Almighty God,
kindle, we pray, in every heart the true love of peace,
and guide with thy pure and peaceable wisdom
those who take counsel for the nations of the earth;
that justice and peace may increase until the earth is filled with the knowledge of thy love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

Deacon:

Let us pray for all who suffer and are afflicted in body or in mind:
for the hungry and the homeless,
the destitute and the oppressed,
and all who suffer persecution or prejudice,
for the sick, especially those suffering from this pandemic,
for the wounded and the handicapped,
for those in loneliness, fear and anguish,
for those who face temptation, doubt, and despair,
for the sorrowful and bereaved,
for prisoners and captives, and those in mortal danger,
for all at the point of death, and those who watch beside them,
that God in his mercy will comfort and relieve them,
grant them the knowledge of his love, and stir up in us the will and patience to minister to their needs.

Let us kneel in silent prayer.

Subdeacon: Arise.

Celebrant:

Gracious God,
the comfort of all who sorrow,
the strength of all who suffer;
look with pity on our world brought low by disease,
hear the cry of those in misery and need.
In their afflictions show them thy mercy,
and give us, we pray, the strength to serve them,
for the sake of him who suffered for us,
thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

Deacon:

Let us pray for God's ancient people, the Jews,
the first to hear his word, and for the peace of Jerusalem,
That God will grant us all grace to be faithful to his covenant and to grow in the love of his Name.

Let us kneel in silent prayer.

Subdeacon: Arise.

Celebrant:

O God, who didst choose Israel to be thine inheritance:
Have mercy upon us and forgive us for violence and wickedness against our brother Jacob;
the arrogance of our hearts and minds hath deceived us,
and shame hath covered our face.
Take away all pride and prejudice in us, and grant that we,
together with the people whom thou didst first make thine own, may attain to the fullness of redemption which thou hast promised;
to the honour and glory of thy most holy Name.

People: Amen.

Deacon:

Let us pray for all who have not received the gospel of Christ:
for all who have not heard the words of salvation,
for all who have lost their faith,
for all whose sin has made them indifferent to Christ,
for all who actively oppose Christ by word or deed,
for all who are enemies of the cross of Christ and persecutors of his disciples, for all who in the name of Christ have persecuted others,
that God will open their hearts to the truth,
and lead them to faith and obedience.

Let us kneel in silent prayer.

Subdeacon: Arise.

Celebrant:

Merciful God,
creator of all the people of the earth, and lover of souls,
have compassion on all who do not know thee,
as thou art revealed in thy son Jesus Christ,
let thy Gospel be preached with grace and power to those who have not heard it, turn the hearts of those who resist it,
and bring home to thy fold those who have gone astray,
that there may be one flock under one shepherd,
Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

Deacon:

Let us commend ourselves and all God's children to his unfailing love, and pray for the grace of a holy life,
that, with all who have departed this life and have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to God alone, we may be accounted worthy to enter into the fullness of the joy of our Lord and receive the crown of life in the day of resurrection.

Let us kneel in silent prayer.

Subdeacon: Arise.

Celebrant:

O God of unchangeable power and eternal light,
look favourably upon thy whole Church,
that wonderful and sacred mystery;
By the effectual working of thy providence carry out in tranquility the plan of salvation.
Let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new,
and that all things are being brought to their perfection by him through whom all things were made, even thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord;
who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People: Amen.

THE VENERATION OF THE CROSS

All stand. As the Cross is unveiled, this Antiphon is sung three times, each time a semitone higher than before. At the words "O Come, let us worship" all kneel, then rise for the repetition of the Invitatory.

Cantor

Be- hold the wood of the Cross, where-on was hung the

Sa - viour of the world:

All kneel and sing:
O come, let us wor - - ship.

After the third response, all kneel. Once the Sacred Ministers and choir have venerated, the members of the Congregation who wish to take part in the Veneration follow the example of the acolytes, while the choir sings the Reproaches and Antiphon.

Those taking part in the Veneration may kneel and bow their heads in reverence before the Cross.

Those who are unable to kneel may bow reverently while standing and then return.

THE REPROACHES

The Reproaches probably come from the old Spanish Church, which used Micah 6.1-8 on Good Friday, of which verse 3 forms the opening reproach. They express the heart-breaking pleading of God—so vividly displayed in the Cross—to his people in every age, Jew and Gentile, now as then.

O my people, what have I done unto thee? Or wherein have I wearied thee? Testify against me.
Because I brought thee out of the land of Egypt, thou hast prepared a Cross for thy Saviour.

Agios o Theos. Holy God.
Agios ischyros. Holy, Mighty!
Agios, athanatos, eleison imas.
Holy and Immortal, have mercy upon us.

Because I led thee through the desert forty years, and fed thee with manna, and brought thee into a land exceeding good, thou hast prepared a Cross for thy Saviour.

Agios o Theos. Holy God . . .

What could I do more for thee that I have not done? I planted thee, my choicest vine, and thou hast become exceeding bitter unto me; for vinegar, mingled with gall, thou didst give me when thirsty, and hast pierced with a spear the side of thy Saviour.

Agios o Theos. Holy God . . .

HYMN IN HONOUR OF THE CROSS

- A Faithful Cross! above all other
One and only noble Tree!
None in foliage, none in blossom,
None in fruit thy peer may be;
- B Sweetest wood and sweetest iron!
Sweetest weight is hung on thee.

HYMN 129 – Sing, my tongue, the glorious battle

- 1 Sing, my tongue, the glorious battle,
Sing the ending of the fray;
O'er the Cross the Victor's trophy,
Sound the loud triumphant lay,
Tell how Christ, the world's redeemer,
As a Victim won the day. (A)
- 2 God in pity saw man fallen,
Shamed and sunk in misery,
When he fell on death by tasting,
Fruit of the forbidden tree;
Then another tree was chosen
Which the world from death should free. (B)
- 3 Therefore, when th'appointed fulness,
Of the holy time was come,
He was sent, who maketh all things,
Forth from God's eternal home;
Thus he came to earth incarnate,
Offspring of the maiden's womb. (A)
- 4 Thirty years among us dwelling,
Now at length his hour fulfilled,
Born for this, he met his Passion,
For that this he freely willed.
On the Cross the Lamb is lifted,
Where his life-blood shall be spilled. (B)
- 5 Bend thy boughs, O tree of glory:
Thy too rigid sinews bend,
For a while the ancient rigour
That thy birth bestowed, suspend;
And the King of heav'nly beauty,
On thy bosom gently tend!. (A)
- 6 Thou alone wast counted worthy
This world's Ransom to sustain,
That a ship-wrecked race might ever
Thus a port of refuge gain,
With the sacred blood anointed
From the Lamb for sinners slain. (B)

- 7 He endured the nails, the spitting,
Vinegar and spear and reed;
From that holy Body pierced Blood and water forth proceed:
Earth, and stars and sky, and ocean
By that flood from stain are freed. (A)
- 8 To the Trinity be glory
To the Father and the Son,
With the co-eternal Spirit,
Ever Three and ever One.
One in love and one in splendour,
While unending ages run. (A & B)

HOLY COMMUNION FROM THE RESERVED SACRAMENT

Please kneel.

INVITATION, CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Ye that do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead the new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways: Draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort; and make your humble confession to Almighty God, meekly kneeling upon your knees.

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men: We acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, Which we from time to time most grievously have committed, By thought, word, and deed, Against thy Divine Majesty. We do earnestly repent, And are heartily sorry for these our misdoings. Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, Forgive us all that is past; And grant that we may ever hereafter Serve and please thee In newness of life, To the honour and glory of thy Name; Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all them that with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him: Have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant: Let us pray for the coming of the kingdom in the words our Saviour taught us:

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

All who intend to receive Holy Communion pray together:

We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, Trusting in our own righteousness, But in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy So much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, Whose property is always to have mercy: Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, So to eat the Flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, And to drink his Blood, That our sinful bodies may be made clean by his Body, And our souls washed through his most precious Blood, And that we may evermore dwell in him, And he in us. Amen.

All baptized Christians are invited to come forward to receive Holy Communion as directed by the Sidespeople. The Ministers receive the Sacrament consecrated at yesterday's Mass of the Lord's Supper and reserved since then for this purpose, and then immediately deliver it to the People.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION WHICH MAY BE SAID BY THOSE NOT RECEIVING

My Jesus, I believe that thou art truly present in the Holy Sacrament. And since I cannot now receive thee sacramentally, I beseech thee to come spiritually into my heart. I unite myself unto thee, and embrace thee with all the affections of my soul. Let me never be separated from thee. Let me live and die in thy love. Amen.

ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesu, hear me.
Within thy wounds hide me.
Suffer me not to be separated from thee.
From the malicious enemy defend me.
In the hour of my death call me.
And bid me come to thee,
That with thy saints I may praise thee,
For ever and ever. Amen.

MOTET

'Adoramus te, Christe,' Giuseppi Corsi

We adore thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee, Who, by thy Holy Cross hast redeemed the world. O Lord, have mercy upon us.

COMMUNION HYMNS

HYMN 138 – Glory be to Jesus

- 1 Glory be to Jesus,
Who, in bitter pains,
Poured for me the life-blood
From his sacred veins.
- 2 Grace and life eternal
In that Blood I find;
Blest be his compassion Infinitely kind.
- 3 Blest through endless ages
Be the precious stream,
Which from endless torment
Doth the world redeem.
- 4 Abel's blood for vengeance
Pleaded to the skies;
But the Blood of Jesus
For our pardon cries.
- 5 Oft as it is sprinkled
On our guilty hearts,
Satan in confusion
Terror-struck departs;
- 6 Oft as earth exulting
Wafts its praise on high,
Angel-hosts rejoicing
Make their glad reply.
- 7 Lift ye then your voices;
Swell the mighty flood;
Louder still and louder
Praise the precious Blood.

HYMN 545 – There is a green hill far away

- 1 There is a green hill far away,
Outside a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.
- 2 We may not know, we cannot tell
What pains he had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.
- 3 He died that we might be forgiven,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heaven,
Saved by his precious Blood.
- 4 There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.
- 5 O dearly, dearly has he loved,
And we must love him too,
And trust in his redeeming Blood,
And try his works to do.

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, we pray thee to set thy Passion, Cross, and Death between thy judgement and our souls, now and in the hour of our death. Give mercy and grace to the living, pardon and rest to the dead, to thy holy Church peace and concord, and to us sinners everlasting life and glory; who with the Father and the Holy Spirit thou livest and reignest, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

CONCLUDING HYMN 590 – The head that once was crowned with thorns

- 1 The head that once was crowned with thorns,
Is crowned with glory now:
A royal diadem adorns
The mighty Victor's brow.
- 2 The highest place that heaven affords
Is his, is his by right,
The King of kings and Lord of lords,
And heaven's eternal Light.
- 3 The joy of all who dwell above;
The joy of all below,
To whom he manifests his love
And grants his Name to know.
- 4 To them the Cross with all its shame,
With all its grace is given;
Their name an everlasting name,
Their joy the joy of heaven.
- 5 They suffer with their Lord below,
They reign with him above,
Their profit and their joy to know
The mystery of his love.
- 6 The Cross he bore is life and health,
Though shame and death to him:
His people's hope, his people's wealth,
Their everlasting theme.
